 WESTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
 BY DEPUTY CLERK

FILED

5. Only judgments entered by one court may be challenged in a single petition. If you want to challenge judgments entered by different courts, either in the same state or in different states, you must file separate petitions as to each court.
  6. Include all your grounds for relief and all the facts that support each ground for relief in this petition.
  7. When you have finished filling out the petition, mail the original and two copies to the Clerk of the United States District Court for the federal district within which the State court was held which convicted and sentenced you, or to the federal district in which you are in custody. A "VENUE LIST," which lists U.S. District Courts in Texas, their divisions, and the addresses for the clerk's office for each division, is posted in your unit law library. You may use this list to decide where to mail your petition.
  8. Petitions that do not meet these instructions may be returned to you.

All applicants must answer the remaining questions:

20. State clearly every ground on which you claim that you are being held unlawfully. Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary, you may attach pages stating additional grounds and facts supporting them.

CAUTION:

Exhaustion of State Remedies: You must ordinarily present your arguments to the highest state court as to each ground before you can proceed in federal court.

Subsequent Petitions: If you fail to set forth all grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

Following is a list of the most frequently raised grounds for relief in habeas corpus proceedings. Each statement is a separate ground for possible relief. You may raise any grounds, even if not listed below, if you have exhausted your state court remedies. However, you should raise in this petition all available grounds (relating to this conviction) on which you base your belief that you are being held unlawfully.

DO NOT JUST CHECK ONE OR MORE OF THE LISTED GROUNDS. Instead, you must also STATE the SUPPORTING FACTS for ANY ground you rely upon as the basis for your petition.

- (a) Conviction obtained by a plea of guilty which was unlawfully induced, or not made voluntarily, or made without an understanding of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea.
- (b) Conviction obtained by the use of a coerced confession.
- (c) Conviction obtained by the use of evidence gained from an unconstitutional search and seizure.
- (d) Conviction obtained by the use of evidence obtained from an unlawful arrest.
- (e) Conviction obtained by a violation of the privilege against self-incrimination.
- (f) Conviction obtained by the prosecution's failure to tell the defendant about evidence favorable to the defendant.
- (g) Conviction obtained by the action of a grand or petit jury which was unconstitutionally selected and impaneled.
- (h) Conviction obtained by a violation of the protection against double jeopardy.
- (i) Denial of effective assistance of counsel.
- (j) Denial of the right to appeal.
- (k) Violation of my right to due process in a disciplinary action taken by prison officials.

A. GROUND ONE: Prison officials violated Petitioner's due process rights in a disciplinary action.

Supporting FACTS (tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

Prison officials violated Petitioner's "liberty interest" protected by Federal Established Law under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution and Texas Constitution by imposing an unmeritted disciplinary action against Petitioner resulting in lost privileges and property. Petitioner was under the discretion of a TDCJ official designee, i.e. Lt. Bailey, decision making and policy change.

B. GROUND TWO: Prison officials violated a protected property right in a disciplinary action.

Supporting FACTS (tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

Prison officials violated Petitioner's acquired personal property rights that is protected by Federal Established Law under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution and Texas Constitution. Petitioner was restraint from the freedom of property by removing all of her printing apparatus, i.e. typewriter and pens, from her possession, interfering and prohibiting her from completing her appellate post-conviction agenda in state court through the court system.

C. GROUND THREE: Prison officials violated an Eighth Amendment prohibition in a disciplinary action.

Supporting FACTS (tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

Prison officials subjected Petitioner to endure cruel and unusual punishment by placing her on restrictions causing unnecessary and wanton infliction of pain prohibited by Federal Established Law under the Eighth Amendment of the United States Constitution. Petitioner suffered undue circumstances such as medical problems, heat exhaustion, eating and drinking without utensils, harrassment and oppression.

D. GROUND FOUR: _____

Supporting FACTS (tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

---

---

---

---

---

---

21. Have you previously filed a federal habeas petition attacking the same conviction, parole revocation, or disciplinary proceeding that you are attacking in this petition?

Yes  No

If your answer is "yes," give the date on which each petition was filed, the federal court in which it was filed, and whether the petition was (a) dismissed without prejudice or (b) denied.

---

---

22. Are any of the grounds listed in paragraph 20 above presented for the first time in this petition?

Yes  No

If your answer is "yes," state briefly what grounds are presented for the first time and give your reasons for not presenting them to any other court, either state or federal.

Because this case involves a prison disciplinary action, it is not reviewable by the state court and since it involves violations of the Fifth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, that it is properly brought by Federal Habeas Corpus petition to this Court.

23. Do you have any habeas corpus proceedings or appeals now pending in any court, either state or federal, relating to the judgment or proceeding under attack?

Yes  No

If "yes," identify each type of proceeding that is pending (i.e., direct appeal, art. 11.07 application, or federal habeas petition), the court in which each proceeding is pending, and the date each proceeding was filed.

Wherefore, petitioner prays that the Court grant him the relief to which he may be entitled.
